

BRITISH TAEKWONDO CONTROL BOARD (WTF)

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Information for the applicant.

Licence , Grading Record Book and Insurance

You must receive the Licence Book within 6 weeks of application.
The Licence fee includes insurance. Ask to see the Schedule of Insurance. If you wish to make a claim under the BTCB Accident and Public Liability Insurance Policy you must notify Membership Services in writing within 14 days of the accident occurring.
Failure to do so may result in claim rejection.

Medical Disorders.

Applicants who suffer from any medical disorder must attach to this form a letter from their doctor confirming that they are fit to practice Taekwondo. Failure to do so may invalidate insurance cover.

Kup Examinations.

Kup (10th to 1st Kup) grading examinations can only be conducted by a BTCB 4th Dan or higher grade. All successful candidates must be given a BTCB certificate within 4 weeks of the examination.

Dan Examinations.

Full BTCB members resident in the UK are required to take their Dan promotion tests at a sanctioned BTCB Dan grading.

BTCB Member Group members resident in the UK are required to take Dan promotion tests at a sanctioned Memembr Group Dan grading. BTCB Licence holders may not grade at any other Dan promotion test within the UK without first obtaining the permission of the BTCB National Executive in writing. The BTCB will not recognise the new grade of members who take any other Dan promotion test when they are at the same time in membership of the BTCB. The member concerned may have his/her licence revoked.

BTCB members resident overseas for more than one year must notify the National Executive of their intention to grade in their new resident country.

Database.

The information (except medical records) given on this form will be entered into the database and is for exclusive use by the BTCB. If you do not wish your data to be stored tick here:

Acknowledgement.
